GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT OF THIS COMMUNITY

Remember Then That:

- The business of a town is its very life-blood.
- The stores and business houses are not alone for the merchants.
- Prosperous merchants will make the community prosper.
- The more buyers there are in a town, the greater "turn over" the merchants will have, and thus the more they will be able to reduce prices and increase the quality of the goods they sell.

Thus By Trading at Home

with the home town merchants the people of Macleod become the builders of their own community.

No True Citizen

will stunt the natural growth and expansion of his home town by fostering the mail order business of far away communities.

Buy At Home

not to help the merchants, but to help the home community and yourself.

WANDA NELSON AND ARLINE McNEELY, WARNER, AND HOPE DILLINGHAM, MACLEOD, WIN AWARDS AT BANFF W.I. GIRLS CLUB CONVENTION

Delegates from Macleod to the W. I. Girls' Club Convention held in Banff last week were Miss Hope Dillingham, President of the Jubilee City W. I. Girls' Club, and Miss Muriel Callie. Miss Hope Dillingham won one of the six prizes awarded by Hon. George Hoadley, in her particular case the prize being in recognition of the young lady having handed in the best delegate's report. Miss Hope Dillingham is the youngest president holding that office in any of the W. I. Girls' Clubs in Alberta, being but fourteen years old, and is quite modestly elated at her success in winning one of the above mentioned six prizes, which were all in the nature of first merit awards for six different competitive activities in connection with the Banff convention.

Garden Prairie Girls club at Barons, won the $250 scholarship offered to the Women's Institute Girls' clubs by Hon. George Hoadley, minister of agriculture. This announcement was made on Saturday at the concluding session of the Banff convention of the W.I.G.C.'s at Banff by Mrs. F. W. Addison, domestic science teacher at Olds, who was sent especially to judge the competition.

In all eight clubs competed and articles were entered into the following classes: posters on landscape, gardening, sewing—pillow cases and step-in and slip; essay, "Home and Country" topic; a booklet showing how to dress on $200 per year; cooking, date loaf, fruit cake and strawberry jam; three unframed pictures; organizing new clubs, and the best reports.

The Garden Prairie girls say that there will be no need to send a teacher to test the individual members, for Ella Barlow, a member who helped so much with the competition will win it easily. This is most interesting in view of the fact that a sad accident last year resulted in Ella losing one leg.

Gives Six Pictures
Hon. George Hoadley also donated six pictures which were awarded for the following: To Wanda Nelson of Warner, the best secretary's report; to Hope Dillingham, Macleod, the best delegates report; to Arline McNeely, Warner, the second best athlete; to Alise Anderson for a guessing contest; and to Josephine Buck for the delegate coming the farthest.

THE EMPRESS THEATRE --- CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

TORONTO CRITIC PRAISES
"FLAG LIEUTENANT" TO BE
MON.-TUES.-WED.

"There is a new British motion picture in Toronto just now awaiting release to 'The Regent,' said The Evening Telegram in the Saturday entertainment section of April 23rd. This picture, 'The Flag Lieutenant,' produced a very powerful impression. Preliminary scenes showing the British naval battle line steaming in superb formation are enough to thrill the beholder. Superb photography is here exhibited, and the same standard is maintained right through to the finish. This picture is in the same class as 'Beau Geste.' The flag for which the men in this film fight is the Union Jack, and the manner of man you see in this spectacle is essentially British—British soldier and sailor too—in other words the Marines of merriment and glorious memory wherever Britain has engaged in a modern sea-fight.

"Almost everything even the most biased motion picture fan could want is in this picture, and most wonderfully produced. There is a strong story plot. There are all kinds of incidents and action scenes. There is romance, the love of man for woman, and of man for man. There is the wonderful way of the seemingly unemotional English girl with that white-hot volcano of affection in the heart of her beneath the deliciously cool iceberg exterior that she shows to the watching world. There is woman's wit in a crisis. There is man's magnificent self-sacrifice for a friend. There is fighting, and there is dancing. Best of all there's a happy ending won out of almost impossible hard conditions, just the sort of story that makes the tangles of real life seem worth living through after all.

"Excellent opportunity is given for the picturing in the very best manner possible of the British Navy at work and at play. Boys row the galleys in a naval regatta. Destroyers dash off on a dangerous errand. There is a dance on the quarter-deck of a big battle cruiser. Big guns boom and crash forth their awful tonnage of terror. Naval Hydroplanes sweep forth to the rescue of a sorely beleaguered regiment in one of Britain's 'funny little wars' that have made our Army and Navy the slinky bit of efficiency they are. There's a landing scene which might be a miniature Gallipoli, and a bit of individual heroism pictured with British restraint which does the beholder good through every nerve from heels to head with a special thrill for the heart.

"This is a British picture par excellence. It means business. It shows that the British Motion Picture Producer is on the job and that the domination of Canadian silver-screens by United States pictures is on the wane. This is a picture that will be talked about, and viewed with delight by thousands of patriotic Canadians who will enjoy it as much for its own merits as because it is British. Love, interest, action, incident, humor, pathos and full dramatic effect are all here and they are presented with almost perfect photography, superb breadth and spaciousness of scenery, and above all the British spirit throughout.

BIG ENGLISH PRODUCTION
"THE FLAG LIEUTENANT" AT THE EMPRESS, MON.-TUES.-WED. 3 DAYS

To anyone who has never been aboard a destroyer, a battleship in real action or a seaplane equipped for fighting order there awaits more thrills and action than has ever been attempted before to place in a picture. It is action of the British Navy that thrills one to the utmost in "The Flag Lieutenant," which will be at the Empress Theatre next Mon.-Tues.-Wed. With the direct co-operation of the British Admiralty the producers have let no obstacle stand in the way in making this production as fine as possible. Closely woven into the picture which was made by Maurice Elvey in England, the director has succeeded in bringing forth a tremendously appealing love sequence which is portrayed by a carefully selected cast. It will be recalled that "The Flag Lieutenant" served as a starring vehicle for that noted English actor, Cyril Maude, for a number of years.

While a great portion of the scenes include the British Navy with its fighting seamen and marines, thousands and thousands of extras were also engaged to be transformed into fighting avengers, the action which also takes place at a little outpost of Empire furnishes an opportunity of bringing out many pounding and pulse leaping moments and the magnificent background, the settings and photography are achievements which have been masterfully executed.

"The Flag Lieutenant" will undoubtedly rank among the finest of productions which have been made in England to date and it is with general pride that Canada is fortunate of an opportunity of an best all-round athlete was won by Mary Robbins, Stony Plain. There were three contestants in the cushion class. Helen Bromley, Clennan; Mary Dittich, Leduc; and Mary Morrison, Delia. After Helen Bromley won the picture box of chocolates for the best leader was won by Clara Johnson.

Reports from Barons, Warner, Olds, Delia, Milk River, Three Hills, Manyberries and Munson received honorable mention.

Officers Elected
The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Selma Eckstrom; of Leduc (re-elected); vice-president, Aulda Barlow, Barons; sec.-treas., Helen Bromley, McLennan. Directors: District No. 1, to be elected by McLennan club; district No. 2, Gertrude Flood, Leduc; district No. 3, Edith Edge, Three Hills; district No. 4, Alice Darling, Coats.

Miss Isabel Noble of Daysland, the retiring supervisor, and Clara Johnson, retiring secretary-treasurer, were presented with beautiful hand-colored photographs of mountain scenes.

Jasper Park in 1928
Resolutions included one to hold next year's convention at Jasper park, another to ask the home bureau service to allow the new supervisor Mrs. J. McGregor Smith of Edmonton, to visit all clubs; and to ask the Women's Institute to include articles of the prize competition in the Alberta W.I. exhibit at the Canadian national exhibit.

Speakers on Saturday's program included Gladys Ricker, Alliance, who spoke on "Ships That Come In," stressing triumph over adversity and not giving up too easily; Helen Bromley on facts and figures of the Peace River country; and Mrs. J. F. Price of Calgary, on the passing of Charles Mair, Canada's oldest and one of her greatest poets.

"When the Knight comes riding by" was the topic of a most interesting discussion led by Miss Jessie MacMillan, secretary of the home bureau. The girls were agreed upon taboos: strong drink, indiscriminate potting, smoking and use of strong language.

The following reports were given: Milk River by Adeline Ellert; had a five-day camp trip in the Sweet Grass hills, an exhibit of art, produced a play, had demonstrations and a tennis tournament.

Susie Housh of Rosebud G.C. (Eagle Hill) told of programs of papers, contests, and physical exercises, of a camp on the Red Deer river, dances and parties.

Red Deer River Camp
Munson G.C. work was reviewed by Lillian Mueuse, this including a camp on the Red Deer river, raising $69.37 for the Red Cross, talks on etiquette, educational papers and raised by dances and a wheat pool drive.

Delia Sunshin club, represented by Mary Morrison has included in its activities educational papers, "Camp Elmer" on the Red Deer river, a mother and daughter banquet, demonstrations, two tag days for the Red Cross, two Chautauquas and selling poppies.

The Busy Bees of Farrel Lake, was reported by Mrs. Lillian Mueuse, who told of a bazaar, donations to a Christmas tree, community Christmas tree, programs with debates, speakers and demonstrations.

MACLEOD BOYS AND GIRLS' SECURE B PIGS
The group of the School of Agriculture at Claresholm who are organizing and supervising the local Boys' and Girls' Pig Club is at the district today (Thursday) distributing the pure bred sows and feeders to the members residing in the Orton and Parkerville districts. He reports having had considerable difficulty securing desirable stock hence the delay in delivery. Three weeks ago he brought a carload of pure bred sows from the districts of Innisfail, Red Deer, Lacombe and Camrose, the Dominion Government assisting in the transportation. These have been cared for at the Claresholm school till now. Each member gives a note for the cost of the pigs plus 5% which forms a pool insurance on the pigs for one year. This has proven to be an excellent protection for the members against loss.

Mr. Cockburn expects to distribute the remainder of the pigs on Tuesday next if weather will permit, taking a truck load for the members at Hazelmere, Rathwell and McBride to Mr. Wm. Alcock, where they will be distributed. The members should be on hand at the distributing point to draw for their pigs.

Every man should have a h-baby, and every woman have a hubby.

A TRIPLE ALLIANCE FOR PEACE

In the preface which he has written for "The Meaning of Rotary" by a Rotarian, Mr. John Galsworthy presents a vivid and startling picture of the dangers that threaten civilization if the tooth-and-claw policy which governs international relations is not replaced by policies based on a spirit of good will and sympathetic understanding.

We have conquered the air, yet this conquest places in the hands of warring nations an instrument for destruction that presents ghastly possibilities. Cities could be demolished and a war ended in a week by this inhuman method.

The scientific improvement of the weapons of destruction, the use of poisonous gas and the invention of many strange mechanical devices designed for wholesale slaughter are all in the possession of nations whose jealousy, or greed, or vanity will decide the issue of war or peace.

Mr. Galsworthy asks, "Are scientists to be more concerned with the interests of their own countries, or with the interests of the human species? Modern invention has taken such a vast stride forward that the incidence of responsibility is changed. It rests on science as never before. Our fate is really in the hands of the three great powers—science, finance and the press." In a triple alliance of these powers, Mr. Galsworthy believes, lies the hope of the world if they are able to institute a sort of craftsman's trusteeship for mankind.

Racial prejudices and the greed for money divide the world into antagonistic groups in which the ambitions and fears have the supremacy over reason and the welfare of the whole human race. Primitive men gradually built up codes of morals to suit their own peculiar necessities. The appalling consequences that must inevitably follow unrestricted scientific warfare can be prevented only by the international co-operation of the three powers which now control the destinies of mankind.

Necessity has ever been, and still is, the mother of morals.

THE WORLD SHRINKS

If the air flights of Lindbergh and Chamberlin from North America to Europe have accomplished nothing else, they have at least brought home in a very forceful way realization of the amazing shrinkage to which the world has been subject in the past few centuries.

Slow and ponderous means of transportation during earlier ages have created the illusion of isolation for every nation.

Slow travel built up in everyone's mind the picture of nations lying far apart. And as they were conceived as being far apart geographically, they came to be conceived as being far apart socially and spiritually.

Out of this illusion of isolation have grown the narrow nationalisms that militate against the world's peace.

The speeding up of transportation is tending to break this illusion down.

Fifty years ago, Seattle was as far from Vancouver as Montreal is from Vancouver today.

Even the journey across the Atlantic has dwindled to nothing. In 1492 it took Columbus 69 weary days to make that arduous crossing.

In 1620 that passage still required 66 days. By 1819 it was cut down to 27 days, in 1859 to 12 days, in 1899 one of the first steamships reduced it to 9 days. Fast liners made it in five days in 1924.

And now Lindbergh has minimized the time between America and Europe to one day and nine hours.

The distance between America and Europe has been brought down to what the distance between Toronto and New York was five years ago.

It is easy, rapid and constant travel between Canada and United States has created a fine neighborliness and lasting understanding between these countries, why should not a similar understanding be inculcated between the Old and New Worlds by the new standards of transportation that are being set today?

Columbus discovered America physically. Lindbergh and the other intercontinental fliers may be called Columbus of the air, for they have opened the way for a new mutual spiritual discovery of Europe by America and of America by Europe.

The airplane may yet become the symbol of world peace.

The Wheat Pool Method is Vindicated by Experience

The fact that the Alberta Wheat Pool has increased its membership by some 14,000 farmers since it was formed, offers strong proof of the success of this farmers' marketing organization. The membership in 1923 was 25,000 (in round figures). Today it is approximately 39,000.

ACKNOWLEDGE THE POOL HAS HELPED

The stabilizing effect of the operations of the Canadian Wheat Pool in the Wheat Markets of the World is acknowledged by leading Old Country importers, millers and bakers.

Practically all non-Pool farmers admit the Pool has helped and is helping them. There is no good reason why any farmer in Western Canada with grain to sell should not market it through the Pool. Every new Pool recruit adds to the influences of the organization. Businessmen, professional men and statesmen all testify to the beneficial effects of the operations of the Wheat Pool.

Outside the private dealers in grain, and kindred interests The Wheat Pool has no enemies!

IS THE POOL NOT WORTHY OF YOUR SUPPORT

No matter what anyone says to the contrary, the Wheat Pool has exerted an upward tendency on prices both in and out of Canada. The Pool has meant fairer dealing to the farmers and a more satisfied and contented countryside. It has meant "better living" for Alberta Farmers.

Are these not worthy objects? Has not the achievement of the Wheat Pool been a notable one? Is it not worthy of your active and loyal support?

The Second Series Contracts are now ready.

JULY ROD AND GUN
Full of stories of interest to all sportsmen, Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News for July has just been issued. Among the many breezy stories of outdoor life is a very fine salmon fishing story by A. Bryan Williams, a well known British Columbia authority. Another interesting feature is the first of a short series of unusual stories of Canadian wanderings by Robert James, appearing under the general title of "Tales from the Wardroom Men." Samuel Alexander White contributes another of his fine stories of the old Northwest fur trade rivalry, "The Gantlet Runners." The regular departments, "Guns and Ammunition" and "Fishing Notes" contain some very interesting reading matter with reference to their special branches of sport, and "Kennel" under the editorship of C. G. Hopton, contains many notes of great interest to the fancy. Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Why shouldn't a fighter get $800.00 for a bout? Who deserves pay for the tune if not the fiddler?

He isn't a real go-getter, however, unless he has at least three fountain pens in his coat pocket.

READ DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY AND FOLLOW THEM EXACTLY

There is only one way to kill all the Flies

This is it—Darken the room as much as possible, close the windows, raise one of the blinds where the sun shines in about eight inches, place as many Wilson's Fly Pads as possible on plates (properly wetted with water but not flooded) on the window ledge where the light is strong, leave the room closed for two or three hours, then sweep up the flies and burn them. See illustration below.

Put the plates away out of the reach of children until required in another room.

HUMOROUS SIDE OF LIFE IN THE NAVY IN PEACE AND WAR IN "THE FLAG LIEUTENANT"

There's nothing funnier on a British battleship than the comicalities that develop in the everlasting rivalry between the sailors and the marines—the "Tara" and the "Jollies"—in peace or war. They are great good friends throughout, but they get after each other morning, noon and night.

You see this feature of British Naval life admirably brought out in the great new British film production, "The Flag Lieutenant," which will be at the Empress Theatre Mon.-Tues.-Wed.

"Stiffy" Steel, the marine, and "Dusty" Miller, the sailor, are pals, but rivals too. You will delight in seeing them together in action. It's a regular treat. True British humor, every phase of it. Just the touch of pathos and true comradeship, too, when the marine gets a wound, and his pal helps him out. Then, too, there's a carload of action, a strong story-plot. There is love, romance and thrills by the score.

Produced on a gigantic scale with the direct co-operation of the British Admiralty and based on the romantic drama of the Navy from the play by Major W. P. Drury and Major Leo Trevor, one finds everything in this great British production, which is sure to rank among the finest of the year.

An all star cast headed by Henry Edwards in the title role with thousands and thousands of others handled under the capable direction of Maurice Elvey, is bound to rank among the finest productions of the year.

GIRLS, JAZZ, THRILLS IN
"ROLLED STOCKINGS"

Parents attention!
Did you raise your boy to be a student or an athlete? And if he turned out a gay young blade instead, what then?

If you want to see how somebody else's Ralph and Jim turned out; if you want to see why their father threw out his chest and went into the depths of despair; if you want to find out why their mother smiled indulgently—just go to the Empress Theatre Friday and Saturday and watch "Rolled Stockings" Paramount "youth" picture.

No advice to the youngsters is necessary. They'll go anyway to laugh at and be thrilled by the doings of a sophomore and a freshman. More, they will tell all their friends about it as "Rolled Stockings" is said to be a fast-moving snappy story of college life, with a background of its effect on the home life of the parents. Girls, jazz, undergraduate tricks and a thrilling boat race that touches a new high spot in exciting screen entertainment are included in this portrayal of life among the youngsters.

James Hall is the philandering, gambling, flirting collegian who gets in and out of scrapes with gay abandon. Richard Arlen is his sturdier, quieter brother whose ambition it is to shine in college athletics. He shines, too, as stroke in the race.

Louise Brooks' brunette beauty fits into the surroundings so perfectly you can't help sympathizing with any youngster who idolizes her.
Nancy Phillips, a vibrant young blonde, and a new-comer to the screen gives an effective portrayal as a peppy sorority sister.

NEW COLLEGE COMEDY HERE

All sophomores who have ever hazed a freshman will get a kick out of "Rolled Stockings" which comes to the Empress Theatre next Friday and Saturday. It is a story of college life, culminating with a boat race that has never been equalled on the screen. College crews actually raced for the scenes at Berkeley, California.

In the story, two brothers, Richard Arlen and James Hall, fall in love with the same girl, Louise Brooks. Arlen, a freshman, subject to the hazing of his older brother and fellow classmen, is put through some severe handicaps.

In one of the sequences they get into a fist fight over a jazzy young vamp, Nancy Phillips, but everything is finally untangled. "Rolled Stockings" is a real "youth" story.
The Paramount Junior Stars—Hall, Arlen, Miss Brooks, Miss Phillips and El Brendel—are featured.

MACLEOD LODGE INSTALLS

sented the D. D. G. President, Sister Thompson, with a handsome piece of needlework in appreciation of her

Thompson suitably replied, stating that it had been a real pleasure to her to visit Macleod Lodge and praised the officers for the way they conducted the business of the lodge, stating that she had learned some things which she would carry away with her for the benefit of her own and other lodges.

At the close of the meeting dainty ice cream refreshments were served, which were much enjoyed. Short speeches were made by some of the new and other officers, and a few words also from the D.D.G.P., bringing to a close a very successful in-

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. McLean Macleod, announce the engagement of their daughter Hester, to John Kenneth McGregor, Lethbridge, the wedding to take place the second week of August.

J. Bremner suffered a terrific electric shock on Wednesday evening while, with Mrs. Bremner and his daughter, he was engaged in work in their garden in the eastern portion of Macleod. A blinding bolt of lightning struck in close proximity to Mr. Bremner and was followed by a deafening crash of thunder.
Mrs. Bremner at considerable distance, fortunately observed Mr. Bremner's collapse, and went to his assistance, finding him prostrate and suffering from suspended animation which lasted for about five minutes, after which the stricken man's breathing and heart action again began to function, and he was assisted by his wife to the house and medical aid summoned. The victim suffered from partial paralysis for several hours during which he was in extreme pain which seemed mostly to affect his limbs. The patient is progressing favorably today (Thursday) and is able to walk about. It is supposed that Mr. Bremner was not struck directly by the bolt, but was enveloped by radiations of electric fluid from a pile of old iron near by, and possibly from the wire fence surrounding the garden.

Mr. R. A. Clement, Miss Bernice Elder and Mr. Cordell Swinarton spent the week-end at Waterton Lakes.

Last Friday night at Hill Springs Macleod's base ball team wallowed the haughty Hill Springers to the tune of 11-6. Hooley—"It was a noble victory."

A disastrous fire took place Wednesday night between 10 and 11 o'clock at Riverside Park, about a mile east of Macleod, when a dwelling house belonging to John Paschal was burned to the ground. The house has been occupied by a family named Poroznik, all the family were away at the time except one son, Sam, and he was visiting at a neighbour's about a quarter of a mile distant when the fire broke out. It was first seen by Robert Hunter who lives close by on the next lot, but the fire was coming through the roof when he saw it. He at once rode into town and gave the alarm.
Willie Hunter burst open the front door to see if any one was in the house.
The fire brigade was quickly on the scene, but fire had too firm radiations of electric fluid from a popular. But the demand is for light shades. So the slow selling colors must go. We are offering them at $1.00 per pair. You all in the market, good wearing silk from 50c up.

No lady need go without summer wear as you can buy vests at

SEVENTEEN CARS DERAILED— IN FREIGHT WRECK NEAR MACLEOD

A disastrous train wreck occurred Monday afternoon about two o'clock when an eastbound freight train was nearing Stowe siding, which is six miles west of Macleod. Seventeen cars about the middle of the train left the rails and were piled up on both sides of the track.

From the appearance of the cars it is impossible to tell the cause of the wreck for the track is torn up for over 100 yards and some of the cars are splintered to matchwood.
None of the train crew was hurt, as the engine with 15 cars attached never left the rails, and the caboose with the last 20 cars were also on the rails without injury. There were a number of hoboes on the train, as four or five were seen to jump from the cars that were still on the rails, but whether any were on the wrecked cars is not known. A search was made, but no signs of any were found. The cars were so piled up that it was impossible to tell what was underneath. Fifteen of the cars were loaded with lumber and ties and two with coal.

Salvaging Lumber
A large quantity of the lumber is being got out and seemed to be very little damaged, although the cars were completely wrecked. A large number of men were getting out the lumber and piling it along the track.

The wrecking train and crew from Lethbridge arrived about 6 o'clock, in charge of A. A. Smith, superintendent and other C.P.R. officials.
The engine with 15 cars were run into Macleod, to clear the line for the wrecking train, and an engine from the west pulled the caboose and the 20 cars back to Peigan siding. The engine then came back and was assisting to clear the track from the west end, while the wrecking engine was working on the east end. They hoped to have the track cleared sufficiently to allow the west bound passenger to get through in the morning after 5 o'clock. They were in hopes that they would have the line cleared in time for the east bound passenger to get through at 12:30, but from the amount of clearing still to be done at 10:30, the chances were slim for the east bound to get through without being a few hours late.
